

South Africa stands at a historical, political and economic crossroad. The ANC–Cosatu–SACP Alliance is likely to win the 2009 elections, and important changes in economic direction are possible for South Africa.

*What kind of policies will – and should – a Zuma government follow?
How will business and investors respond to future economic policies?*

We invite you to the launch of Zumanomics: Which Way to Shared Prosperity in South Africa?

Join the Deputy CEO of Business Unity South Africa (BUSA), overall business convenor at the National Economic Development and Labour Council (NEDLAC), and editor of the book, Professor Raymond Parsons, at the Johannesburg Country Club.

DATE: Wednesday, 18 March 2009

TIME: 5:30 for 6pm

VENUE: The Johannesburg Country Club, Napier Road, Auckland Park

RSVP: Thando Email: thando@jacana.co.za Tel: 011 628 3204

*To enter the function please present this number: 19759
You will not be permitted to enter the function otherwise.*

Edited by prominent economist, Raymond Parsons, the book is of consequence for laypersons, businesspeople, economists, trade unionists, bureaucrats and politicians. The wide-ranging but focused analyses presented here will provide valuable insights into the economic and political roadmap that South Africa needs in the years ahead if shared prosperity is to be achieved on a much bigger scale.

OLD MUTUAL

invest in your success

The Country Club
Johannesburg

Leopard's Leap
WINES